True, Igor Glenn has played with musical legends from the New Christy Minstrels to John Denver to Benny Goodman. But with six decades of touring the world as a solo artist or teamed with the likes of the Jazz Cowboys, Igor has emerged as a legend in his own right. As a one-man band, Igor's commands musical styles from country to folk to gospel to jazz...well, he embraces genres from A to Z. What's more...what other musician can claim to charm audiences in China and both versions of "The Gong Show." Then when Igor mixes and matches his musician friends in concert, the musical menu covers tastes from the world over. Don't be surprised if Igor and his family-friendly friends have audiences singing along in the intimate Womack Center.
